An Ambassador for Christ: Dr. Kenneth T. Whalum, Jr., M. Div., JD. Pastor, The New Olivet Worship Center

Dr. Kenneth T. Whalum, Jr. is known in the Memphis community as a bold, no-nonsense Pastor, who “keeps it real,” in and out of the pulpit. As Pastor of The New Olivet Worship Center, he demonstrates a heart for the youth of our city, drawing the forgotten back to Christ, and setting the record straight when injustice takes center stage. His passion and drive to see a better

Memphis is evident and recognized by the news media, who have referred to him as “a commanding presence, difficult to compete with” on the public stage.

Operating under the moniker of the Preeminent Church for the Teaching of True Worship, Dr. Whalum and his congregation have been engaging in True Worship (proskuneo, GRK), the acts of worship (lying prostrate, bowing, kneeling, blowing kisses to God) since the turn of this century. He has developed the 7 Steps to Winning With Worship®, a strategy that places Christians in a position to benefit in their everyday life through obeisance. His teaching of true worship uplifts the spirit, confirms the righteousness of Christ for believers, and shows the power of his gravitas to others. The Memphis Flyer described his works in the pulpit as “eloquent and vigorous.”

Dr. Kenneth T. Whalum, Jr. is personally accomplished; an author of two books, FASTING: It's Not For Everybody, But It Might Be For You! and the game changing, Hip-Hop Is NOT Our Enemy; a graduate of Morehouse College (BA), Temple University (J.D.) and Memphis Theological Seminary (M.Div.). The Memphis Commercial Appeal newspaper stated, “Underestimate Whalum at your own risk.” A strong advocate for marriage and family, he and his wife Sheila have been married for thirty-six years. He has three sons, a daughter-in-law, and two grandchildren.

At The New Olivet, Dr. Whalum models a 12-plan ministry of operations, a vision of economic empowerment, leading the way with Bust-A-Move-Monday!® (B-A-M-M!®), and an atmosphere where members, through the Ministry of H.E.L.P.S. (Having Enough Loving People Serving), look for ways to serve and effect change in the world. Politically active, the Whalums were called the “Betty Crocker, Good Housekeeping seal of approval” by 9th District, Congressman Cohen.

A life-long Memphian, Dr. Whalum's activism spans decades, most recently serving on the City of Memphis School Board for two terms. In describing the work of Dr. Whalum, a local political analyst called him “an iconoclast who has continued his independent ways” in representing the downtrodden and dispossessed of the city. In honoring him at the Southern Christian Leadership Conference MLK Day event, City Mayor Wharton called Whalum “the conscience of our community.”

God has given his messages an enlarged territory and he may be heard streaming live on Sunday mornings, Sunday evenings, and Wednesday nights by logging in to Facebook and going to Kenneth T Whalum Jr. He shares the truth of worship with purpose, focus, and power.

Dear Honorable Commissioners:

SUBJECT: Recommendation of Reverend, Dr., Kenneth T. Whalum, Jr. to School Board Seat

It is with great pleasure that I recommend Dr. Whalum. It is with great conviction that I recommend him to fill this seat by appointment for the Shelby County School Board. His prior experience in being on the school board makes him a valued asset in that he understands the operation and role of the School Board. Dr. Whalum is active in the community and is involved in outreaches to uplift and aid our community. He is a positive role model for children and adults.

He is recommended because he is an ethical person, and values and supports children. He wants the best for the children of Shelby County Schools. His legal and juris doctorate knowledge makes him an asset in dealing with and understanding legal matters and concerns of the district. I further recommend him because he is a product of public schools in Memphis. His children have all attended public schools. He has a history and vested interest in the success of the district and doing the best to move education and the academic success of students forward, having them be able to compete in the workplace globally.

I sincerely hope you consider him for this position. Invest in him, and you and the children of Memphis will be glad you did.

See his attached bio.

Respectfully,

Sarah Kennedy-Harper
